

National Wills Week 2022

A Last Will and Testament is the last thing you want to consider on an unplanned Sunday afternoon at the park. You just might be happy you did!

GETTING STARTED

We should all consider what would happen to our loved ones if we passed away, whether it's fun or not. If you have children or other dependents, it is crucial that you create a Will.

Decide who will draft your Will

Identify your heirs and beneficiaries

Choose a legal guardian for your children

Designate an executor for your estate

Consider other wishes

Sign and file your Will in a safe place
